VOLUME XIX

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1916.

NUMBER 33

A Lamentable Death.

Mr. W. L. Stotts, who lived on his farm, located on the Burkesville pike, four miles from Columbia, was found dead, in his bed last Sunday morning. He was alone in his residence, his son, Dallas, having gone to Glenville in the afternoon, to visit his grandfather, Mr. Matthew Taylor.

Mr. Stotts lost his wife some years ago and he and his son continued to keep house, an old colored woman doing the cooking.

The deceased did not appear for his breakfast at the usual hour Sunday morning, and later his cook went to his room door. There was no response to her knock and she entered the room, finding him lying upon the bed dead.

The neighbors were notified and Dr. C. M. Russell, the Coroner, and County Attorney Gordon Montgomery went to the scene.

There were no marks of violence and Dr. Russell did not have a jury summoned, but announced that the cause of death was apoplexy, and that it occurred several hours before the body was found.

Mr. Stotts had many friends in Adair county and his death is universally regretted.

The remains were conveyed to Glenville, where his wife was buried, Sunday afternoon and the interment was Monday morning.

He was about sixty-three years old. Besides his son, he leaves a brother and one sister. Peace to his memory.

A young cyclone struck Montpelier last Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock. Many trees were blown to the ground, and a portion of the roof of Mr. Luch Williams residence was removed. For a few minutes the residents were greatly frightened.

Arthur Grant and a daughter of Wm. Antle, who live in the Glenville country, went to Tennessee last week and got married.

The Master Commissioner, W. A. Coffey, advertises some valuable land for sale in this week's paper.

The attention of our readers is called to three Bank statements in The News to-day.

Next Monday circuit court will open at Jamestown. The attendance is usually large, and unless wheat harvesting interferes there will be a large number of the yeomanry at the opening. There are a number of fancy horses on exhibition generally at the Russell courts, and some foreign buyers will likely put in an appearance.

The wheat in Adair county has come out wonderfully in the last three weeks, and at this time it is safe to say more than an average crop will be cut. One farmer told the News last Friday that he had the best crop he ever grew.

Ed Lee Grady, of color, who was killed at Lebanon by J. H. Shively, a white man, was a son of Curt Grady, this place. The boy was buried at Lebanon and Shively was arrested for the crime, and was acquitted.

Clemens, a little son of Mr. E. L. Sinclair, who was operated on in St. Anthony Hospital, Louisville, for appendicitis, is doing nicely and will probably be out in about one week.

We advise our correspondents not to take up time and paper writing about neighborhood visits. We want the news, crop prospects, deaths, births, marriages and accidents and serious sickness.

Mr. Geo. H. Nell, who was in the Blue-Grass section of the State last week, says the finest crops of wheat he ever saw are now about ready to be harvested.

Columbia District Conference.

The Columbia District Conference of the Methodist Church convened at Jamestown last Thursday forenoon. All the churches in the district were represented by two or more delegates, and an interesting program was carried out, the session closing Sunday night with a discourse by Rev. J. Robt. Marra.

During the session there were a number of able discourses delivered, especially the one Thursday morning by Rev. J. S. Chandler, pastor of the Church at Campbellsville. His subject was "The Divine Call to Preach the Gospel," and it was handled in a Masterly manner. The song service was led by Messrs. Smith and Thomas throughout the meeting, and the choir was made up with many of the best singers in the district.

Mrs. S. G. Shelly's address, "The Work of the Women in the Evangelization of the World," highly enjoyed by all. The Presiding Elder, Rev. S. G. Shelly was busy all the time. His address Sunday, "Call to service in the Sunday School," was full of truths and very edifying.

Rev. S. L. Piercy, of Taylor county, delivered a most captivating discourse, his subject being "World Wide Evangelism."

Revs. W. R. Wagoner, Jesse L. Murrell and M. M. Murrell made very entertaining addresses.

Prof. R. R. Moss, one of the principals of the Lindsey-Wilson, made a splendid talk, his subject being "My Experience and Contact with Young Life."

Prof. Paul Chandler spoke on what the Lindsey-Wilson is to Columbia district and adjacent territory. His remarks were well received.

We have not the space to take up the entire program, but it was good from start to finish.

Mr. Ed Hill, of Campbellsville, who takes great interest in church work, was present the first two days, and on Friday morning made a very gratifying talk on "Tithing."

Rev. W. F. Hogard, who is very much loved, and who was formerly the Presiding Elder, was present, and it goes without saying that he was continuously handling out pointers, keeping the Conference in fine spirits. He is now the Presiding Elder of the Elizabethtown district, and those who know him know that he will have a good report when the Louisville Conference meets this fall.

The people of Jamestown and vicinity open the doors of their residences, threw the keys in the well, and all in attendance had nothing to do at the meal hours but walk in and be helped to the best edibles the country afforded.

Announcement.

This is to announce that Rev. Joseph Turner has been appointed by to fill the vacancy of Superintendent of Columbia District of United Brethren Kentucky Conference, to take the place of Rev. O. B. West, who is no longer in that position.

G. M. Mathews,
Bishop of the Central District of the United Brethren Church.

Mr. Matthew Taylor, who is in his eightieth year, was in Columbia last Friday. There is not a man in Adair county who is more universally respected, nor one who has more friends. Thirty years ago he was an active business man, filling positions in the county, making a most efficient officer. To-day carrying the weight of many years, suffering with some bodily afflictions, he has a smile for every person he meets, and when he takes your hand he grips it with a warmth, which manifests that he is glad to come in contact with his associates of early days. He is as gentle as a woman, but firm in his convictions. The writer has known him for many years, and never at any time has he discovered in him any thing but marks of a true Kentucky citizen. He is a man who has kept posted with the current events, and imparts his knowledge to less informed friends in most entertaining manner, he is a blessing to his neighborhood, and a friend well worthy of meeting.

For Sale.

An extra good milk cow with young calf.
B. W. Pierce, Rife, Ky.

We extend condolence to Judge J. W. Cloyd and family, who were bereft of a son and brother last Friday. It was Marshall, the third son, who graduated the day before from Center College, Danville, and at the time he was killed he was en route to his home in Campbellsville, riding a motorcycle, and when he reached the crossing at Lebanon he was struck by a fast train and killed. He was buried in his home town Sunday, an immense crowd being present, to show their sympathy for the heartbroken family.

For the summer months I will not be in my office only public days, but will visit the homes over the county to look after the interest of your eyes. I do this for the benefit of the older people who seldom come to town.
32-tf Dr. Z. A. Taylor,
Columbia, Ky.

Rain Kept Many at Home.

Rain prevented a great many from attending children's exercises at the Christian church last Sunday night. However, the interesting program was carried out, and those who put in an appearance were delighted. It takes nerve for little tots to stand before an audience, recite, march and sing, but the little girls and boys who appeared on this occasion, rendered his or her part faultlessly. Miss Mary Lucy Lowe drilled the children and the way each one performed evidenced good instruction. The altar was beautifully decorated with daisies, giving it a happy spring appearance.

An Estimable Lady Dies.

Last Saturday night Mrs. Sallie Walkup, who was the devoted wife of Mr. H. K. Walkup, died at her home, near Glenville. She was a victim of pulmonary trouble, had been confined to her room many weeks. She was about sixty-five years old, and had been a zealous Christian woman from early girlhood. Her death is a serious blow to her husband and children and she will be greatly missed by the entire neighborhood.

A large circle of relatives and friends attended the funeral and burial.

May God comfort the husband and children in this hour of their greatest sorrow.

School Census.

In the school census for Adair county, for 1916, there were reported 5,062 white children and 444 colored children between the ages of 6 and 20 years, making a total of 5,506, which is 18 more than were reported last year. The number of colored children is 25 less than last year.

The number of illiterate children between ten and twenty years of age is, whites, 162, colored 19, total 181. According to census reported to the County Superintendent this year there are 637 whites over 20 years of age who can not read and write, and 103 colored people. The total illiteracy of persons over 10 years of age foots up 9,251 in Adair county,

Artistic Work.

Mr. H. L. Marshall, traveling artist, struck Columbia last week, and as a result of his visit many artistic signs now adorn the show windows of our business houses. In conversation with him he stated that he had been in every State in the Union; that Florida was the best for a poor man, but in speaking of lands, their valuation, their beauty, Central Kentucky, he said, especially about Lexington, was the garden spot of the world.

Death at Coburg.

Just before going to press we learn of the death of Mr. J. B. Russell who lived near Coburg, this county. He was about seventy years old and was one of Adair's best citizens. He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church, and was a Master Mason, a member of Tampico Lodge. He will be buried this (Tuesday) afternoon by the fraternity.

The new Christian Church at Campbellsville will be dedicated the fourth Sunday in this month, the 25th day. It is one of the handsomest edifices in the State and cost $25,000. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Eld. Geo. L. Snively, of Lewistown, Ill. Every body invited.

Barksdale Hamlett, late State Superintendent of schools, has been adjudged insane and sent to Lakeland asylum.

Read the big "ad" of the Paramount Theater. It is on the 8th page.

Farm Women.

The subject of how farm women can get closer together, is so often discussed, and yet no plan is hit upon that amounts to any thing. Before anything can be done along that line, we will have to eliminate every vestige of selfishness from the female character, and every individual must go into this social reform with an eye single to the pleasure and happiness of their associates, and this will surely bear a bountiful harvest of peace and good will to every one. The Bible says: "If any would be great among you, let him be servant of all." When we go back on any plain teaching of scripture, we never reach any desirable conditions. When we are agreed that social clubs shall be instituted for the good of the general public, and not to show off our own greatness, then something will be accomplished. The greatest foe to success in social gatherings is gossip, and so many people seem to derive all their pleasure from this fearful evil. Do you ever think what a grand world we would have, if people would make the same effort to circulate the good things that people do or say, that they put forth to circulate the evil things? One lady was writing that she moved from an otherwise good location because the women did not speak to each other. Now usually, when this state of things exist, somebody has been gossiping. The least story told gathers weight and volume until a whole neighborhood is at sword point, when there is simply nothing to it except the vile imagination of a human vulture. Any one that goes around spreading discord through a community, ought to be quarantined like a smallpox patient. Or, we ought to have a female recorder's court where every woman should meet once a week and straighten out all tangles and difficulties. Think it would make matters worse? It would at least stop women from telling things for truth that "they say?"

Sisters, are you holding malice against some one you once loved because of some report circulated by a gossip? Go to her and talk it over. Afraid to do it. Because you said something unkind about her in your anger. It may be humiliating, but don't let it stay so or you will not be able to say "Forgive us our debt as we forgive our debtors." It would be a grand thing if one could keep other people's shortcomings as secret as one keeps her own.

Now, some of you express yourselves as not agreeing with me on certain points. Why, bless your souls, I don't think the least little bit less of you for that. I am always glad for you to express yourselves. It is entirely possible that I am altogether wrong, and I would like to know your views, so I can change mine if yours enable one to be more true and just and merciful and humble than mine

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it should! For after a strenuous day when your muscles have been exercised to the limit an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and get you in fine shape for the morrow. You should also use it for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, backache, stings, bites and the many accidents that are incidental to a vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment," writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets. At Paull Drug Co. Ad enables me to be. Of all my sins—their name is legion—one of them is not setting up my opinions as better than other peoples. I give them for the consideration of the public and if they choose to repudiate them, I bid them God speed in a better way.

Isn't it amusing to hear so many people discussing "preparedness?" Little schoolboys from twelve to fifteen know exactly what course should be pursued to keep the United States out of war. I am glad that it is Woodrow Wilson, who has to steer the great ship of States through the breakers instead of some others who profess to understand the situation better than he does. This awful foreign war was brought on by selfishness and greed and these two demons will bring war anywhere. All in the world we private individuals can do, is to use our best efforts to destroy them in our own lives and help others to overcome them in this incipency. Christ came into the world and spent his life setting an example of unselfishness. No one left His presence without a blessing, no matter what his needs were. When humanity imitates our great leader and guide there will be no more war, no more injustice, no more gossiping, no more sorrow. May the dear Lord hasten that day.

Emma Garrison,
Milltown, Ky.

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable at Paull Drug Co. Adv.

A Dustless Mop.

Now that housekeepers are in the midst of spring housecleaning, many will want to know how to make a dust cloth or mop which will catch and hold the dust, and not permit it to be scattered about as the ordinary dry dust cloth is sure to do.

Take a length, any length you desire) of cheesecloth, hem it neatly, and dip it into cedar oil, linseed oil or kerosene. Then wring it as dry as possible and hang it in the air until it is dry. That is your dustless duster. The first named oil is best, but the others will do very well if you can't procure the cedar oil.

Now for the mop. If you have a floor mop and want to make it the dustless kind, simply dip it in oil, squeeze and let dry. A very good mop can be made by taking several old stockings and cutting them in inch wide strips. Bind them to the end of an old broom handle and tack them fast, then dip into the oil and allow to dry in the air.

Old rope cut in lengths of about 14 inches, then the lengths tied in the center and bound and nailed to a broom handle makes a good mop. The ends of the rope are separated or fringed before dipping into the oil.

Each of these dusters and mops can be washed when they are filled with dust and when dry they will be as good as ever. If, however, after washing several times the oil is gone, simply dip them again in the oil, and proceed as before.

Oppose Pockets for Women.

Observe what a mere man says when he speaks of why women should not wear pockets in their gowns:

Because the great majority of women do not want pockets. If they did they would have them.

Because whenever women have had pockets they have not used them.

Because women are expected to carry enough things as it is without the additional burden of pockets.

Because it would make dissensions between husband and wife as to whose pockets should be filled.

Because it would destroy man's chivalry toward woman if he did not have to carry all her things in his pockets.

Because men are men and women are women. We must not fly in the face of nature.

And some men are so hard to please that they are not even satisfied with themselves.

It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off as it were. All you need do is to use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. ## Roy.

Those on the sick list are J. T. McElroy, W. M. Roy and Mrs. W. T. Collins. They are no better at this writing.

I wish to correct a mistake made in my last letter concerning the Sunday school at old Freedom church, about everybody being invited. I understood later that they wish no spectators to attend.

W. J. Simmons, of Jamestown, visited his brother, F. B. Simmons, at this place, recently.

King Roy and family visited at T. B. Fitch's recently.

Mrs. Renie Bryant, while seated in the front door of her residence last Monday evening, was very much frightened by a large snake falling upon her feet, from the house top. She was not bitten, but she says her feet does not feel right till this day.

Bro. Caldwell filled his regular appointment at new Freedom last Sunday and delivered a very interesting sermon.

Aunt Scythia Conover, who is a very old lady, is able to go again and is improving.

Holladay Bros. passed through this section with a nice bunch of hogs, in company with Sam Epperson, who also had a nice bunch en route for Columbia.

True Politeness.

"Civility costs nothing" is a common saying, but the truth is, it goes without saying, for it is self-evident. But incivility often costs much. It has been known to cost a man his position, or his opportunity for advancement, and many other things besides. A churlish answer, or forbidding manner, is often the turning point which brings disappointment and disaster. "Courtesy first" is the motto of a certain large establishment in a Western city. All the employees, clerks, and others, associated in the enterprise, wear bright buttons with these words upon them, and it is a genuine pleasure to be waited upon by any of them. The atmosphere throughout the whole building breathes good will. Perhaps the courtesy does cost something—some self-denial, some patience and forbearance, but the returns overpay any such outlay. And let us always remember the definition: "True politeness is to do and say the kindest thing in the kindest way."

Ozark.

We had a soaking rain the first of the week. Ground was to wet to plow for several days.

Uncle Green McKinley is visiting his son and many other relatives at this place.

W. G. Roy, who got his arm fractured some time ago, is improving.

Mrs. Martha A. Bryant is very feeble at this writing.

Joe Denton has been sick for several days.

Aunt Sytha Conover remains about the same.

Mrs. G. G. Reynolds has been very feeble this spring.

Mont Conover and family and E. A. McKinley and family visited at Sam Conover's, near Garlin, last Sunday week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson, Sano, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roy, this place.

Miss Hallie Ellis is visiting Mrs. W. J. Gabbert and Miss Mary Montgomery.

Frank Montgomery and family visited Mrs. Montgomery's parents, near Gentry's mill last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Bryant were guests of Kent Bryant and wife last Sunday.

Misses Annie and Mary Reeves spent Wednesday night with Misses Etta and Lula Bryant.

Eld. Luther Young and sister, Mrs. Tennie Miller, of Dunnville, spent a few days recently with their home folks here.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." For sale by Paull Drug Co. Adv.

DOES IT PAY TO BE SICK?

Let's forget about all the disagreeable and painful part of sickness, and ask ourselves if it PAYS to be sick.

Perhaps you are only HALF sick—maybe you are dragging yourself around, with a "dead tired" feeling. Perhaps you wake up in the morning with a heavily-coated tongue, a bad taste in your mouth, and hardly any appetite. Quite likely you are bilious. Maybe you have dull aches and pains, CONSTIPATION, headaches.

You go about your daily duties. You tell yourself you will feel better to-morrow—but when to-morrow comes you feel just about the same. You try this and that remedy, without getting real relief. Or if you get some relief, it doesn't LAST! You soon feel just as bad as you did before. DOES IT PAY to let yourself stay in this half-sick condition? ### Col. Bill Thorne on War's Evils.

Col. "Bill" Thorne, ex-Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, does not believe in war—modern war, that is. The old-fashioned Kentucky kind suited him all right, but the invention of submarines, airships and guns of enormous size "has him faded" so to speak. In the course of a speech at the State Democratic Convention last week the Colonel spoke about as follows:

"War! Lots of folks in this country are clamoring for war. If Congress would make a law that all people that wanted war would have to join the army and go down into Mexico and fight, it wouldn't be ten days after the law was passed before a nigger substitute would be worth a thousand dollars! War ain't like it used to be, nohow. It used to be that 12 to 15 of us fellows could get a double-barreled shot gun apiece and go out and run a whole regiment of the Republicans into the Ohio River. But war is different from what it was then. They tell me that they've got a cannon now and all you've got to do is to turn a crank like you do a chromo, and it shoots 600 times a minute! And great Scott, boys, now they shoot from the bottom of the ocean, utterly destroy you from the sky, and when they run out of ammunition, they squirt pizen in your face! I don't want no war."

Baking Soda as Medicine.

Baking soda, which is known to physicians and druggists as sodium bicarbonate, is extolled by Dr. W. P. Herrick, of New York, in the Medical Journal as probably the most generally useful of all drugs used as medicines. This is not merely because of its value when used alone, but because of the great number of important combinations into which it enters, its effect seeming to be to increase the efficiency of the drugs with which it is combined.

Dr. Herrick describes the multifarious uses of bicarbonate of soda. These may be summarized as follows:

It is a valuable skin lotion, relieving itching, allaying the pain of burns.

It is a non-irritant antiseptic for wounds.

In warm water it is the best method of removing hardened wax from the ear.

As a nasal douche it is unsurpassed.

As a mouth wash it is antiseptic and alkaline, it cures canker sores.

It makes a grateful gargle in tonsillitis and diphtheria.

As a douche for the stomach

Take Only the Best.

"The best is none too good for me." Keep that thought in mind until the habit of claiming the best has become fixed.

Some people have the idea that cheap, sensational stories are good enough for them, and so they fill their minds with trash, while in the nearest libraries the volumes of the world's choicest literature gather dust. They say that rag-time is good enough for them and cheapen their taste by listening to the swing of some catchy composition, when good music is to be had for the same price. In effect they say that second-rate people are good enough for them, and they associate with the coarse and unprincipled, passing by those with clean lives and lofty aspirations.

Only the best is good enough for you. That does not include big houses and blazing diamonds but it does cover the finer, sweeter things of existence. And the sad part is that many who are satisfying themselves with the husks, are tramping underfoot the sweet, nutritious grain.

Two Peg Legs.

I had a big chunk of lead from a Confederate cavalry carbine driven into my shoulder at Brandy Station, and was in a hospital at Washington for treatment, when an Ohio infantryman was placed on the cot next on the left. He had been shot in the leg about two months before, and after every effort had been made to save the limb he had been brought here to have it amputated. A surgeon came one day to notify him that the operation would be performed the next day, and Bill, as we called him, listened and then replied:

"Say, Doc, I'm awaiting a letter from the old woman. I wrote to her that the leg would probably have to come off, and I want to hear what she has to say?"

"But that can't make any difference?"

"You don't know about that. Women is curious. When she begins to think of me clattering up and down with a wooden pin and realizing that I've got to go stumping around for life, she may feel a disgust. Give me two or three days more in which to get a letter."

The surgeon consented, and in two days the letter came. Bill was very nervous and excited, and he asked me to read the epistle and give him the news. It wasn't from his wife, but from her sister, and she wrote:

"On the day that you wrote Mary that your leg would have to come off we started to drive over to Uncle Ben's. The horse ran away, smashed everything up, and Mary's left leg was so badly broken that it was amputated yesterday. She has the best of care and is doing well. She sends love and advises you to have your leg taken off at once."

"Whoop!" yelled Bill, in a voice which aroused the whole ward. "It's her left and my right. Two wooden pins to go cattering up and down! Two legs to hang up on the wall when we turn in at night! One of you nurses go and tell old Sawbones to come in here and open his butcher shop as soon as he pleases and some of you boys write to Mary that we'll be the happiest couple in the whole Buckeye state!"

Announcements.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce that CHARLES F. MONTGOMERY, of Casey County, is a candidate to represent the Eighth District in the next Congress, subject to the Democratic primary to be held August 5, 1916.We are authorized to announce HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, a Democratic candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the August primary.

In another column will be seen the call from the board of trustees for all subscribers to the railroad fund to adjust their subscriptions to a cash basis. The necessity for this and the importance of immediate action is too well understood for further delay. The Louisville parties have agreed to build the road on the condition that the people of this section give the right of way and fifty thousand dollars, and since this amount of money has been subscribed it is extremely important that every one come to the banks of this town or to the bank of Gradyville and deposit the amount subscribed, either in cash or by making a cash note. The board of trustees want to close the contract at the earliest day possible, and the builders of the road are becoming impatient at our delay, for they want to begin actual work and complete, if possible, the grading before winter weather. This can not be done unless we close up our proposition at once. There is no surplus of subscription, so far as we know, so it is of the utmost importance for every subscriber to come in and make payment at once. Again, there are many who have not yet subscribed, who ought to do so now and not permit this proposition to take any chance of losing. If the fund is over subscribed your pro rata part will be returned, but if under subscribed we lose the road. The truth is that every man ought to be glad to help secure the road and if it fails it can only be charged to those who refuse to give or to many who have only promised a pittance when able to give many times over the amount they promised. It will be a serious calamity to this county and to this section of the State to lose this proposition. It will prove a great business blessing if we succeed. There are many who have subscribed, who are not in the habit of coming to town often, many who are very busy on their farms, but they are urged to drop out one day this week and come in and close up their subscription. Delay is dangerous. Now is the time and the board has called for this and wants the entire amount secured by next Saturday. Arrangement can be made at the banks of this town, using your preference, or at the Bank of Gradyville. Make no mistake by delay. Come prepared to make absolutely a good note by giving the security that will satisfy the bank from which you expect the loan. This proposition is not guaranteed by the banks, but they actually lend the money and must be secured beyond any reasonable risk. This is right, and no reasonable person will object. The banks are proving a valuable asset to this proposition, and but for their generous offer we could not handle this proposition. Come at once and close up.

The Republican national convention and the Progressive national convention finished their work at Chicago last Saturday. As a result of their deliberations one ticket is in the field, nominated in the Republican convention, Charles E. Hughes, of New York for President, Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, for Vice President. The Progressive convention nominated Theodore Roosevelt for President, and Mr. Johnson, of California, for Vice President. The two last nominations were declined, hence the race for the presidency will be Hughes and Fairbanks against Woodrow Wilson and his running mate, who will be nominated at St. Louis this week. There is no doubt but a race is on hand, but it will not become interesting until after the formal notifications and electors take the field. We will endeavor to keep our readers posted as the campaign progresses.

Lieutenant Richard C. Saufley, who was a son of the late Judge M. C. Saufley, of Stanford, was killed near Pensacola, Fla., last Friday. He was in his aeroplane and when he left the Pensacola station he said he would break his former record. After being up nine hours his machine got out of commission, and could not be controlled, and the record-breaking aviator fell to his death. Two years ago he married a daughter of Judge E. C. O'Rear. His remains were brought to Stanford and hundreds attended the funeral. His death is a great loss, not only to his little family, but the United States government.

CATARRH MOST PREVALENT HEREIndoor Worker More Susceptible
To Common Diseases
Than Others.

Probably the most distressing and prevalent disease to which Americans are heirs is catarrhal affection of the mucous membranes. According to medical authorities the indoor worker is more susceptible and is the worst sufferer from catarrhal conditions, of which there are many kinds.

Catarrh of the stomach and kidneys is one of the most common causes of dyspepsia and Bright's disease, and catarrhal conditions of the nose and throat often lead to deafness. Nine out of ten cases of deafness can be traced to catarrh, it is said.

Frequently the lungs become affected by the extension of catarrhal inflammation by way of the bronchial tubes to the lung substance.

The mental and physical state of the catarrhal sufferers is, indeed, very unfortunate, and it is surprising to know what an immense number of people among those who reside in such cities as Louisville, St. Louis or Chicago, are suffering from this almost universal malady when they believe something else is the cause of their trouble.

The symptoms of catarrh are: offensive breath, constant sniffing, discharge from the nose, headaches, full head, pains in the stomach, unsound digestion, loss of appetite, broken sleep, and a great liability to catching colds and sore throat.

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, was designed to relieve just these conditions. Thousands of men and women have unhesitatingly acknowledged the benefits they have derived through this Master Medicine.

Tanlac restores lost appetite, relieves sniffing, discharge from the nose, headaches and stomach pains, and will assist in the assimilation of food and bring back sound sleep, according to thousands who have realized the benefits from this wonderful preparation.

Tanlac is a tonic of rare properties, an appetizer and general invigorant designed to rid the system of congestion, tone up the stomach, overcome indigestion, headaches, backaches, non-assimilation of food, nervousness, dizziness, ailments of the kidneys and liver, and the complaints that are so common to the half-sick, debilitated men and women of today.

Tanlac may be obtained now in Columbia at the Page & Hamilton drugstore, where it is being especially introduced and its merits explained by the Tanlac Man.

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

In Pawn.

There is scarcely anything in this wide world that a person up against it financially can't pawn,
for the pawnbroker is a gambler,
whose instincts either are acquired or born in him, and he will take a chance on anything provided the article is not falling to pieces.

Women, according to the pawn-broker, work their own ruin frequently by liquor and drug addiction, but in a great many cases it is derelict husbands who cause the women to patronize the pawnshop. And the woman makes the sacrifice to protect her
children.

"A woman who is struggling to save her children," the pawn-broker said, "will begin by pawn-ing household things. The alarm clock or another kind of clock will go first. Then she will sacrifice a few dishes. May be some of the furniture will go next. Her clothes will remain for the last, because she needs clothes in her quest for work.
The best dress will be saved, if at all possible, but I have known hundreds of cases where they have pawned corsets to keep the family supplied with a bite of food in times of want."

In things offered for pawn the threeball man says that razors lead by a wide margin, while alarm clocks, strange as it may seem, come second. Umbrellas, too, are a common article to be pawned. And only about 30 per cent., of these articles eventually are redeemed.

I keep on hands a full stock of coffins, caskets, and robes. I also keep Metallic Caskets, and Steel Boxes and two hearses. Prompt service night or day. Residence Phone 29, office phone 98.

It is commonly known that points of the compass can be determined by the use of a watch.
By pointing the hour hand toward the sun, "a bearing half way between the hour hand and twelve o'clock on the watch is true south. It is not generally known that time can be told by the compass with equal facility.
Take the true azimuth or bearing of the sun and subtract from it 180 degrees; multiply the remainder by the fraction 1-15,
and the result will be the hours
before or after twelve o'clock noon.

The amount due from one subscriber to this paper is a small matter, but consider several hundred of these and it is a big matter to us. For this reason we urge each and every one to send in their renewal at once. Look at the label on this paper. It will tell you when your subscription expires. Then appoint yourself a committee of one to mail us your renewal today. If every subscriber will do this it will save us much time and expense and will enable us to devote same to the improvement of your paper.

His Five Dimes.

The State Belgian Relief commission was collecting funds in Washington when there came a contribution from a young lad, an ex-bonvict, who sent five dimes. This note accompanied the money:

"My contribution is not much,
as contributions go, but it represents the difference between new soles on my shoes, and wearing the old soles a little longer. My five dimes represent five cans of milk for five little Belgian tots.
I'll take chances on catching cold."

Prison is likely to make a convict bitter and hard. It had given this reformed prisoner a wide sympathy for all who suffer.
The hardest part of a convict's life often comes, too, after his discharge from prison. This man is fighting back to an honest life through difficult days of poverty. The whole world has been against him, as it is against every ex-convict. Yet out of his shame and poverty, he has the spirit of a royal giver.
He has the heart to realize the need of children thousands of miles away, and is willing to go with his feet on the ground in order to be able to aid those
children.

If any one in the community might have been excused from giving, this ex-convict was the man. He needed help, surely,
as much as any Belgian refugee.
But it is the test of a generous heart that it does not desire to be excused:

It Pays to Organize.

A planter down in Kentucky had just employed a strange negro as a mule driver. He handed him a brand new blacksnake whip, climbed up on a seat behind a pair of mules and asked the darkey if he could use the whip. Without a word the mule driver drew the black lash between his fingers, swung it over his head and flicked a butterfly from a clover blossom alongside the road over which they were traveling.

"That isn't bad" remarked
the planter. "Can you hit that honey bee over there?"

Again the negro swung the whip and the honey bee fell dead.
Noting a pair of bumble bees on still another blossom, the negro swished them out of existence with the cracker of his new black snake, and drew further admiration from his new employer.

A little further along the planter spied a hornet's nest in a bush beside the highway. Two or three hornets were assembled at the entrance to the nest.

"Can you hit them, Sam?" he inquired.

"Yes, sah; I kin," replied the negro, "but I ain't a goin' to;
dey's organized."—Exchange.

Secretary McAdoo, in a speech, declared that the United States was enjoying an era of unexampled prosperity, and that the dinner pail was overflowing.

Worth a Million at 26.

Edward Galt, native Georgian,
now of Ardmore, Okla., started with a penny when he was six years of age, and now at 26 he is worth $1,000,000 and wealth is accumulating for him by the thousands of dollars. To begin at the beginning Galt was born in Spring Place, Ga., in 1890.
Late in the 80's Galt went to Oklahoma after attending college in Georgia and entered the real estate and insurance business in Ardmore. There he became a close friend of Roy M.
Johnson who was trying to squeeze bread and meat out of a small newspaper.

One day a gentleman and a scholar, a man who had seen the ups and downs of life, appeared in the newspaper office and asked Johnson for some coin. The old man left on a vagabond trip that covered several weeks. He would return from time to time and beg more cash and each time he told Johnson that some day he would make him rich.
One day the old fellow entered and remarked that he had found the richest oil and gas field in Oklahoma.

Johnson called his friend Galt.
Together they raised money to buy a small piece of real estate.
Their first well was a gusher.
Then they had no trouble getting cash and everything to which the young men turned their hands prospered. They took partners and now they own a railroad and control the largest independent oil companies in Oklahoma.

Animals can Swim.

The author of a book on animals once said "Sheep cannot swim." The statement was accepted because no contradictory evidence could be found, and there seemed to be a prevailing belief in its accuracy. But now
Mr. H. C. Hammond, Newton, Kansas, writes: "Please take this back. Some years ago a large flock of sheep owned by a Mr. Berryman did swim the north fork of White river in Arkansas. The sheep were being taken from Arkansas to Howell county, Missouri. The river at that point was over a hundred yards wide, and the current swift."

This seems to settle an interesting point in natural history.
That is, it shows that sheep can swim, though it does not make quite clear whether they do so voluntarily, or just how much persuasion was necessary to induce them to enter the water.
Even cats and fowls float, so that, when forced into the water in any way, they make some kind of desperate struggle to reach the land.

A new 300 barrel oil well is reported in Estill county where there is a great oil boom, probably the greatest in the history of Kentucky.

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a Judgment of the Adair Circuit Court, entered at its May Term, 1916, in favor of Cumberland Grocery Co., against Melvin Petty, I, or one of my deputies, will, on Saturday, the 17th day of June, 1916, between the hours of 10 o'clock, a. m., and 1 o'clock, p. m., at the Store House door of Melvin Petty, at Picnic, Adair county, Kentucky, expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, the following property, (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy Plaintiff's debt, interest, and costs,) to-wit: A remnant of a stock of goods consisting of dry goods, notions, groceries, and hardware. These goods will be sold in three different lots as follows: The dry goods and notions in one lot; the groceries in another lot, and the hardware in another lot. Then they will all be sold together, the highest bidder being the purchaser. The amount of debt to be satisfied is $158.00 and interest from January 1, 1916, until paid, and the further sum of $39.10 cost herein, which amounts to the sum of $201.60 levied on as the property of Melvin Petty.

Terms: Sale will be made on a credit of 3 months, bond with approved security required, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from day of sale, and having the force and effect of a Judgment bond.

Skillful men should know how to disguise their skill.

Is World Peace to be Result?

The daily press has hinted that the Pope is about to formally renounce all pretensions to temporal authority and bring about some other reforms which will make for better feeling toward the Vatican.

It is also intimated that Emperor William has suggested President Wilson as possible peace arbitrator and that heads of other warring countries will not be averse to such peaceful intervention. However, all this may be the merest moonshine, as it is difficult to imagine the war being brought to a close at its present height on any other terms than that every nation retire with honor and with its boundaries intact. To consent to such an arrangement would sound the death knell of absolutism, monarchy and militarism and the doctrine of divine right of kings.
